SUNDAY.....AUGUST 8, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The races at Poughkeepsie yesterday were a grand success. The crops in Kentucky are reported to be greatly damaged by the floods. The firm of Archibald, Baxter & Co., New York, have suspended. The O'Connell Centennial in Dublin was concluded yesterday.

Walter Delaski was drowned in San Francisco Bay on Friday. Dispatches from Dublin yesterday indicate more trouble in prospect.

Patrick Connolly attempted suicide in San Francisco on Friday. Cause, poverty and want of work. The fire which burned Lansell's grist and saw mills yesterday in New York caused the death of three men.

The New Jersey Midland Railroad draws bridges over the Passaic river was destroyed by lightning yesterday morning. It is claimed in Washington that the Republicans have carried North Carolina.

The Washington employing printers have agreed with their men to pay 50 cents per thousand and 40 cents per hour on time work. The steamships Wisconsin, from Liverpool, and the Othello, from Hungary, arrived at New York yesterday.

A walking match between W. E. Harding and J. H. Smith for $5,000 a side has been arranged, to take place at Deerfoot Park, New York.

Further news of the Treasury robbery will be found in our dispatches. Yellow fever is disappearing at Barranacas. The flood in the Eastern rivers still continues.

A billiard match has been arranged between John Roberts and A. P. Rudolph for $500 sterling a side and the championship of the world. The match takes place on the 17th of September at St. James' Hall, London.

Continued rains have fallen in France, and foods are threatened. Mr. Schosse, of Vicksburg, Mississippi, won the silver cup at the international match at Stuttgart yesterday.

The Prussian railroads under State management have agreed to return Centennial good free of charge. A Raleigh, North Carolina, dispatch says the Democrats give up the election. The Constitutional Convention meets September 6th.

The returns from fifty-six counties in Kentucky give an increased Democratic majority. The Massachusetts Republican Convention meets at Worcester on September 26th.

The committee of ten, of San Francisco have nominated A. S. HALLIDAY the wire manufacturer, for Mayor. He is a success as a wire puller.

The following appointments have been made for Mr. WIGGINTON. He will speak at San Diego on the 9th; at Anaheim on the 11th; Downey city the 12th and San Bernardino the 13th.

So far this year the failures by banking firms in the United States foot up over $74,000, and yet we not hundreds of other editors did not lose a cent. Blessed are the poor.

CREED HAYMOND seeks to make a point by charging that BECK while Senator voted for Local Option. The record shows that CREED ignorantly or intentionally misrepresents. BECK did not so vote.

AGENTS in Washington are busy hunting up the evidence against BIDWELL and SARGENT. The 23,000 acre farm of the first, and the mining land of the latter are in danger. So much for washing dirty linen in public.

We hear it rumored that some of the political opponents of Mr. C. E. MILES, Democratic candidate for Recorder, are charging that he is superintendent of the Water Company and therefore he is the Water Company's candidate. This is a mistake. Some time past Mr. MILES acted in the capacity of superintendent of the Company's works but he is not connected with that corporation nor has he been for some time. Mr. FRED EATON is the Water Company's superintendent.

The little unpleasantness which has existed within the ranks of the Democracy of San Francisco for some time has been smoothed away and now all is lovely and everything serene. The contending factions have kissed and made up and from this time until the last ballot is cast on election day the Democrats of the Metropolis will act in harmony and present an unbroken front to their opponents. Much of the ill feeling and dissatisfaction that existed was fostered by the enemies of the party who well knew that their only hope for the defeat of its candidates was by the creation of a division and the maintenance of it until election day. The Democrats were too wise to fall into the trap and that harmony now prevails which will ensure a triumphant victory on the first of September.

POLITICS are very much muddled in San Francisco and the newspapers are doing all in their power to make things still more ambiguous. The condition of the State tickets is barely comprehensible. There are but three—Democratic, Republican and Independent—but the city and county compound is simply beyond analysis. The Democrats are making up a ticket—in fact they are making up two tickets—the Bulletin and Call are fixing up a ticket in their own interests and the Chronicle is whittling out a set of candidates according to the notion of PIXLEY. The Post is jumping about like a small dog in tall rye talking Democracy to-day, patting the Bulletin and Call on the back to-morrow, and yelping for PIXLEY and the Chronicle, the next day. One would hardly believe it, yet each and every one of these journals fill their columns with protestations that they have but one thought and one purpose—the best interests of the city. How different their notions as to what is really best for the good people of that city. Conscientious journalism is a commodity with which San Francisco is overstocked.

Losing Ground.

The aspect of the political situation has changed very materially within the past three weeks. When BIDWELL was placed in the field by the Independents it was universally conceded that his strength before the people was more than double that of PHELPS the Republican nominee. So popular did he appear that the sanguine Independents indulged in the hope that he would be elected. This of course was impossible from the first, but there is no doubt but that at an early period of the campaign BIDWELL would have polled many more votes than he could now or will on the first of September. His supporters have fallen away. At first by ones and twos, but by late by fifties and hundreds until there are but few left. No leader ever decimated his ranks so rapidly before going into action as General BIDWELL. His speeches kill more of his own men than fall by the arguments of his opponents. They are worse than a combined attack of cholera, yellow fever and small pox. They are potent for driving men out of the Independent party. The result is that PHELPS who at one time was likely to be distanced in the race, will now come in ahead of BIDWELL. It is probable that IRWIN will distance both PHELPS and BIDWELL but no matter how far behind PHELPS is when IRWIN crosses the line, BIDWELL will be behind PHELPS. Wherever BIDWELL is seen and heard the people are convinced that he does not possess the first qualification befitting him for Governor. Mr. BIDWELL will not carry this State, he will not poll as many votes as PHELPS and the chances are almost even that the combined vote of BIDWELL and PHELPS will not greatly exceed that polled for Governor IRWIN.

In his speech last night Mr. WIGGINTON reviewed the record of Mr. HOUGHTON while representing this District in Congress, and he sustained each allegation with evidence that neither Mr. HOUGHTON nor his friends will be able to refute. By a thin, weak subterfuge, Mr. HOUGHTON attempted to refute one of the charges against him—that of denying the right of petition to 3,000 of his constituents. He said by way of refutation that he did not deny the right of petition to 3,000 citizens of Los Angeles county. No one ever said that he did, but he dare not deny that he denied it to 3,000 citizens of his district. Mr. WIGGINTON also showed that HOUGHTON voted to almost double the revenue tax on grape brandies—a positive injury to the people of Southern California. We are not now astonished that Mr. HOUGHTON refused to canvass the district with Mr. WIGGINTON. He is no match for him as a speaker, and he does not like to have his record uncovered.

Trial of John D. Lee.

BEAVER, Utah, August 7th.—The jury in the Lee case have been out 25 hours. There is no prospect of a verdict and if one is reached it will disappoint everybody. There is a general impression, which seems to be well founded, that the jury stand ten in favor of conviction and two for acquittal, with the prospect of being changed to eleven to one. Great interest is manifested in the jury's action. It is thought they will ask to be discharged to-day. Dame is confined at Fort Cameron.

Fine Racing.

POUGHKEEPSIE, August 7th.—Today was the third day's races of the Hudson River Driving Park Association. Although the weather was threatening there was an immense gathering, estimated at 10,000 persons. The track was in fine condition. The first race was for a purse of $2,500 for 2d, 3d and 4th class. There were twenty entries, ten of which were drawn, leaving ten contestants, the favorite being St. Julian, who won the first, third and fourth heats, Tom Moore taking the second heat. Time, 2:24, 2:30, 2:30, 2:38, 2:26. Tom Moore took the second money, unknown the third and Frank Munson the fourth.

The second race was for 2:27 class. Purse $4,000, of which $2,000 was for the first, $1,000 to second, $800 to third and $400 to fourth. The first heat was won by Frank Ferguson and second, third and fourth by Bonner, with Ferguson second, fourth by White and White fourth. Time, 2:27, 2:26, 2:24, 2:29.

The grand event of the meeting was a free for all race. Purse, $4,500, of which $2,250 went to the first horse, $1,500 to the second and $750 to the third. There were six entries, Goldsmith Maid, American Girl, Judge Fullerton, Hopeful, Huntress and Lady Maud. Hopeful, Lady Maud and Fullerton were drawn, leaving three horses in the field.

First Heat—At starting Huntress had the lead by three lengths, with American Girl and the Maid together. Going around the turn the Maid took the pole and kept the lead by three lengths to the homestretch, where American Girl made a wonderful burst of speed and, passing the Maid, came under the wire the winner of the heat by half a neck in 2:17.

Second Heat—Huntress again took the lead at the start, with the Maid second. At the quarter-pole American Girl took the pole, with the Maid second. American Girl retained the lead past the half mile, when she made a bad break, falling back. The Maid went to the front, but the Girl again collared her and they were side by side at the three-quarter pole. Here American Girl again fell back, and the Maid won the heat easily in 2:15, American Girl second and Huntress third.

Third Heat—The horses got a good start, the Maid going to the front, and at the half-mile pole led by four lengths. At the three-quarter pole the positions were unchanged, the Maid coming in an easy winner in 2:19, American Girl second.

Fourth Heat—Huntress led at the start, with the Maid in the rear. At the quarter-pole the Maid took the lead and retained it throughout, winning the heat and race by three lengths in 2:20.

This finished the grandest meeting of the season, and although the weather has been unfavorable the first meeting has been a grand success.

and denying the motion to vacate the order of arrest.

The Trouble in Dublin.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—A special dispatch from Dublin this afternoon says the proclamation issued by Lord Mayor of Dublin, prohibiting the proposed pyrotechnic display at Phoenix Park to-night was the cause of anticipated disturbance. The Mayor received information that a number of Irishmen from England arrived yesterday, armed with revolvers and determined if a single shot was fired in the procession, to precipitate a general disturbance.

The Stolen Money.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—At last there is a fair prospect of recovering forty-seven thousand dollars stolen from the Treasury a short time ago.

Three arrests have been made within the past few days, and five of the five thousand bills stolen have been traced at the request of the Treasury officials. Further information to the agent of the American Press Association is withheld for prudential reasons.

The U. S. Treasury.

WASHINGTON, August 7th.—The Treasury detectives having failed to unravel the mystery surrounding the loss of the package of $47,500 from the Treasury Department June 2d, the police authorities of the District were requested to take the case in hand. It is believed that they now have a clue, but as the case is one which requires every movement to be made with the utmost precaution, the Superintendent of Police and the whole detective force are keeping what information they have to themselves. Mr. Geo. D. Miller, who had been absent from the city a few days, arrived home last Monday with Theodore Brown, known as "Pegleg" Brown. The arrest of this individual on Thursday night is thought to be the first step towards working up the supposed clue to the robbery. An attempt was made to-day to have Brown brought out on a writ of habeas corpus, but the Court refused to grant the order. This morning B. B. Hale, a clerk in the Treasury Department, now on leave of absence, was arrested in New York by a detective from this city on the charge of being concerned in the robbery, and they are expected to arrive this evening.

The Anaheim Disaster.

Thursday's Anaheim Evening Gazette furnishes the following additional details:

About noon yesterday a terrible accident occurred at Anaheim Landing, which resulted in the drowning of three men. It seems that six employees of the Lighter Company were returning from the anchorage, and in crossing the bar their boat capsized. They all succeeded in reaching the shore, but a heavy wave washed them off. Two of the crew again reached the boat and clung to it until they were rescued by a crew from the shore, who had witnessed the accident. Of the other four, one (Charley Wilson) swam ashore, and the other three disappeared beneath the water. One of the drowned was Jack Westering, for a long time a resident of the Landing. The other two had just arrived from San Francisco, a few weeks ago, and were comparative strangers. This is the first fatal accident that has occurred at the landing since its establishment, eleven years ago.

Since the above was in type, we learn that the bodies of Jack Westering and Boyd have been recovered, and Judge Clark, acting Coroner, and jury went to the landing this afternoon for the purpose of holding an inquest.

Captain John Prindville of Chicago has received a dispatch announcing the safe arrival of the schooner Pamlico at Faebor. It took her fifty days to make the trip from Queenstown to this side. It was an unusually long trip, and many lives were saved, even up as lost. Mr. Prindville was the only one who insisted that she would turn up all right, no matter how long she was out, and events have proved that he was right. The Pamlico left Chicago with a load of corn for Liverpool, and was on her way to the other side of the ocean without having got into any trouble. She was chartered to take back a cargo of chemicals, but when near Newfoundland she encountered a severe storm and was almost wrecked, compelling her to go back to England for repairs. In the Fall she again tried to reach this country, but made no better success than at the first time, being again driven back in a disabled condition. This time she arrived at this side of the ocean, but only after a most tedious and lengthy voyage and having been given up by many persons.

A dreadful calamity occurred at Bridesburg, Pa., yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock. A considerable explosion occurred, which was heard for a considerable distance, and the building in which it took place was literally blown to atoms. Between thirty and forty lives were lost. The cause of the accident is yet unknown. Bridesburg, where the U. S. Arsenal is situated, is seven miles out of town in the 22d Ward, on a wooded creek, near the mouth of the Delaware. The explosion is creating a terrible excitement in the neighborhood. Most of the population reside on the opposite side of the creek. The arsenal was in command of Lieutenant-Colonel A. J. Treadwell. The explosion occurred in the laboratory of the arsenal, and twenty-five persons were in the room at the time. The following is a partial list of the casualties: Killed, John McLaughlin, and John McMillen; wounded, Edwin Childs, Albert Lee, Wm. Butler, Abe Faren and S. Irwin. A later dispatch says the explosion was caused by the breaking up of condemned ammunition. There were forty to fifty boys at work in the laboratory, only two of whom are reported killed, but several are fatally wounded. The whole number of killed and wounded will not be under thirty. The indications are that the first report of the explosion was exaggerated.

gerated. The killed will not probably exceed two or three, though there are a number injured all of whom are boys.

According to the accounts from Damascus of the 22d of July, the cholera was raging there. Four hundred cases were reported daily, but the real number was concealed. The Christian quarters are deserted. Sudden deaths occur on the streets. There are no physicians, medicines nor supplies for the sick. The disease is also bad at Antioch, Deirhems, Hama, Hama and Silliah. The Druz mission schools are closed and the children dispersed.

Somere Parcia, a pawnbroker at 238 West Fifth street, Cincinnati, started his wife and daughter in charge of the shop. They took chairs and sat on the pavement near the front door, and while there a thief entered the rear and succeeded in getting $8,000 or $10,000 worth of jewelry out of the open safe and making his escape, although the gas was burning brightly. The loss was not discovered until Friday.

The Government income for the fiscal year is larger than any estimate made and will more than realize the highest expectations of the Treasury officials.

A Washington special says the Postoffice Department has received information that Superintendent Bangs, has concluded negotiations for the fast mail train, and an experimental train will be run between New York and Chicago about the middle of this month. The first regular train will leave New York at four o'clock on the morning of October 1st. No passengers or freight will be taken. The only cars will be mail cars. The run to Niagara Falls will be made without stopping, at an average speed of 40 miles per hour.

A Chicago dispatch of the 6th says the Times to-morrow will publish a statement obtained from a prisoner named Billy Forester, serving a term of ten years in the State Penitentiary at Joliet for burglary. The statement is in substance that he is fully cognizant of the facts pertaining to the Nathan murder, though he cannot point out the man who struck the blow. He attempted, with the co-operation and cognizance of certain high officials in New York, to open the safe in the Nathan mansion, and while making this attempt, aroused Nathan. Between them, in order to escape, they killed him with an iron dog, which they were using as a professional tool. He refuses to reveal the names of these parties, because he fears that it will interfere with his plan of bringing them to justice and revenging himself on them for their persistent persecutions of himself. Should he secure a pardon, as he hopes to do, he will make this the object of his life. He affirms that the relatives of the murdered man had no knowledge of the way in which he came to his death, and denies the truth of the stories recently published in New York and elsewhere concerning the murder.

Cardinal McCloskey left New York for Europe yesterday. All the priests and Archbishops will accompany him to the steamer to bid him adieu. He expects to return about the middle of November. There has been a growing suspicion here that the four young Cincinnatians whose bodies were recovered from the river, and who were supposed to have been run over in a skiff by a tow boat, were the victims of foul play. The bodies when recovered were horribly mangled about the face in an almost similar manner. The case will probably receive a thorough investigation.
